ROBERT M. PUFFENBARGER

Robert M. Puffenbarger is retiring with 9 years of service to Potomac State College.

Born in Kempton, West Virginia, Bob received his diploma from Elk Garden High School in 1947.

Before his employment at Potomac State, Bob served in the U.S. Army, stationed in Germany for three years and at Ft. Lee, Virginia, for one year. He also worked for Celanese Corporation in Cumberland, Trailways Bus Lines in Washington, D.C., and Queen City Bus Lines in Cumberland.

At PSC, he worked as a custodian, mostly in the Student Union.

Bob's family members include wife Ruth, 3 sons, 2 daughters, 13 grandchildren, and 2 great-grandchildren.

Bob and Ruth reside in Cresaptown and plan to move to Nashville after retirement.

DALLAS B. SHAFFER

Dallas B. Shaffer is celebrating 25 years of service to Potomac State College. He is currently professor of political science and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences and Education.

Born in Northfork, West Virginia, Dallas graduated from the University of Richmond with a bachelor's degree in history and earned a master's degree and doctorate in political science and history from WVU. He has also completed postdoctoral studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

Before coming to Potomac State, Dallas was an instructor at the Parkersburg branch of WVU, an assistant to an associate professor at Fairmont State College, and a veteran of the U.S. Army.

In addition to division chair responsibilities and teaching at PSC, he is chair of the PSC Affirmative Action Council and chair of the selection committees for Truman Scholarship Program, AACJC All American, and Frasure-Singleton Student Legislative Program.

Dallas also chairs the University of West Virginia system EO/AA Advisory Council. He is a member of the Board of Trustees Social Justice Council, the WVU Council for Women's Concerns, and the WVU Social Justice Liaison Council. He has served six years on the WVU Faculty Senate.

In service to the state of West Virginia, Dallas served two governors as liaison to the U.S. Department of the Interior, obtaining funds for historic sites including the Pearl Buck home. He has also been active in regional and local service organizations.

Shaffer family members include wife Jennie, teacher at Keyser High School; son Franklin, who holds an MME from WVU and is employed by the U.S. Department of Energy, Pittsburgh; daughter Lynne, who holds a degree in pharmacy from WVU and is married to Dr. Kelly Agnew, Columbia, S.C.; and son Douglas, who holds a degree in pharmacy and is now a third year medical school student at WVU.

MILDRED P. TWYMAN

Mildred P. Twyman is retiring from the college with 17 years of service to Potomac State.

Born in Keyser, Millie attended Lincoln School in Keyser, Howard High School in Piedmont, and Scott High School in Toledo, Ohio, from which she graduated in 1944.

Before her employment at Potomac State, Millie worked as a singer, dancer, square dance band member, restaurant cook, housekeeper, and funeral home receptionist.

At PSC, she was housekeeper for Deans Slonaker and McBee and President Gratto. At other times at the college, she helped Mrs. Hanlin in the home economics department and was custodian in the Administration Building.

Millie is a member of the Faith Chapter #31 Order of Eastern Star (Charter Matron); American Federation of Women, Toledo, Ohio; VFW Auxiliary (Historian), Aubrey Stewart Post, Piedmont; and the Janes United Methodist Church.

Her family members include Stewart T. Twyman, Jr., (son); Todd A. Twyman (grandson), attorney of law in Charleston; and Tonya Twyman (granddaughter), attending WVU.

D. ANTHONY WHITMORE

Completing twenty-five years at Potomac State, Tony Whitmore came to the college in 1967. Previously, he taught at Concord College and Martinsburg South Junior High School. He received a bachelor's degree from Shepherd College and graduate degrees from West Virginia University.

Born in Williamson, West Virginia, on a Friday 13th, he and his family defected to Baltimore, Maryland, shortly thereafter; but as soon as Tony had finished high school, he returned to West Virginia immediately and, despite suggestions from various administrators, steadfastly refuses to leave.

Aside from his regular duties as an English instructor, he has directed the Potomac Players, sponsored the literary magazine, and coached tennis. He has also served as chair and secretary of the Faculty Assembly. He is a member of the Keyser Presbyterian Church, the Hemingway and F. Scott Fitzgerald Societies, and the American Homebrewers Association.

Tony was awarded Potomac State College Outstanding Professor of the Year honors in 1990.

Tony lives in Keyser with his wife Connie and his mother Ruth. His son Greg and daughter Laura are presently living in Morgantown.
